Location:

Letchworth Garden City was the World's first Garden City, founded in 1903. It has a population of 33,249 (2011 Census) and is located in North Hertfordshire, approximately 32 miles north of London. The town has direct access to the A1(M), which offers links to the M25, 20 minutes to the south.

Letchworth Garden City mainline railway station provides a fast service to London Kings Cross (36 minutes) and Cambridge (25 minutes) and is well located for the international airports at both Luton and Stansted.

Description:

Spirella 2 is a modern office building located in the centre of Letchworth Garden City, conveniently located in the town centre and a short walk to the railway station and all the facilities of the town centre.

The property is accessed via the Spirella Building where there is designated parking for this building.

The property is currently set out over first floor and part second floor. The main area of offices are currently set out with cellular offices and meeting rooms. Some of this space has vaulted ceilings which gives an imposing and individual appearance. There is good natural light on all elevations with roof lights to the second floor.

The property benefits from a good-sized separate kitchen/eating area and WC facilities which include a disabled facility. The main reception area leads to an open plan office area beyond which separate individual offices are set out. In the centre of the floor there are a number of meeting rooms.
